

Sectional Descriptions & Locations

“My Face – Tube” - Internet Social Networking and Confession - Music Room

What does Facebook have to do with Confession? Can you tweet your sins? You Tube the faith? How should a Lutheran think about these popular internet sites? Does Scripture or the Catechism have any insight for us? This real-live discussion of the virtual places we frequent will delve deeper than a status message for the answers. Presenter: Rev. Thomas Chryst, Grace Lutheran Church, Racine, WI

Surviving College with Your Faith Intact - Grade 8 Classroom

Will you be attending college in just a few years or less? Trying to pick one out? Such a life change can be exhilarating and downright scary all at the same time. How will you survive? Come and hear straight talk about issues facing Christian students on the college campus from the classroom to the frat and sorority house. Learn what to expect and how to remain a faithful Lutheran rooted in Christ on campus. Presenter: Rev. Thomas Reeder, Campus Pastor at University of Wisconsin, Platteville and the pastor of Apostle's Lutheran Church, Platteville, WI

Fearfully and Wonderfully Made - Blue Room

Peek into the "Secret" place where your frame was not hidden and you were nurtured through a selfless servant super organ. What does science and evolution say about human life and its origins? More important, come to hear what God's Word says!

Presenter: Mr. Hans Otten, Science Teacher at Sheboygan Area Lutheran High School, Sheboygan, WI

“Why do all these Bad Things Happen to Such Good People?” - Green Room

Earthquakes, hurricanes, tornadoes, tsunamis! Why do all of these terrible disasters happen? Is God punishing the people of Haiti? Are all of these things a part of God's plan?

Presenter: Seminarian Joe Hoem, Concordia Theological Seminary, Ft. Wayne, IN

“In Christ Shall All Be Made Alive!” - Grade 7 Classroom

Larry Thompson, a local funeral director, explores the one subject many are curious about but no one likes to talk about. DEATH. We will talk about it; answer your questions and explain what happens after death, how our beautifully created bodies are cared for and the hope we have in Christ our Savior.

Loving Our Embryonic Brothers and Sisters - German Room

John the Baptist leaped for joy in Elizabeth's belly because fetal-Jesus was in the womb next door. But today, many seek to destroy such little lives. We'll look at the issues of abortion, embryonic stem-cell research, and cloning. Come and discuss how you can protect our unborn neighbors. What kind of stem cell research is good? Presenter: Deaconess Lynn Fredericksen, Treasurer of the Higher Things Board of Directors, principal and teacher at St. John Lutheran Church, Suring, WI

Boyfriends May Come and Go, but YouTube is forever! - Computer Lab

Tim Herrmann, a technologist with the Kohler Co. and father of two teenagers will discuss the power of the Internet and how teens (both boys and girls) can take advantage of this technology while protecting their reputations.

"You make me SOOO ANGRY!!!!" - Tan Room

How many times have you heard those words or said them yourself? Anger is such a common emotion. In fact, in most cases, we don't even have to work to get angry... it just happens. Anger creeps up on us or jumps on us in the heat of the moment. So how do we as Christians react to our anger and the anger of others? What does God's Word say about anger? What is up with Christ's anger and the wrath of God? In this talk we will be looking at what the Bible says about anger and what it means for us as Christians today! We will also connect this anger to Confession and what God promises us in His words of absolution concerning our anger.

Presenter: Rev. Joel Howard serves as a teacher at Sheboygan Lutheran High School. He teaches all levels of theology, along with serving as the dean of chapel and the graduation marshal.
