“Love Not Grievance”

† The Fifth Sunday of Easter †

April 28/29, 2024

Trinity Lutheran Church
824 Wisconsin Ave., Sheboygan WI 53081
www.trinitysheboygan.org, 920-458-8246

PRAYER UPON ENTERING: Almighty God and Father, through Your only begotten Son Jesus Christ You have overcome death and opened the gate of everlasting life to us. Grant that we, who celebrate with joy the day of our Lord's resurrection, may be raised from the death of sin by Your life-giving Spirit; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

WELCOME: We cordially welcome you to the Lord's Service this day. If you are worshipping with us for the first time, the following suggestions may be helpful to you:

- The Divine Service is printed on the panel.
- Hearing devices are available. Please ask an usher for assistance.
- The time before the service is a time of prayer and preparation to receive the gifts of salvation. In addition to prayer, look over the readings and the words to the hymns during this preparation time. A booklet entitled, "The Divine Service" located in the pew rack may also assist you in understanding worship at Trinity.
- Please silence all cell phones and refrain from taking pictures. Thank you.
- Visitors, please sign the guest register located in the Narthex.

GUESTS AND THE LORD'S SUPPER: If you desire to commune, please speak to one of the Pastors before the service. Our altar is open to those who confess oneness with us in doctrine, are members of our congregation or sister congregations of the Lutheran Church - Missouri Synod and are not under church discipline in another congregation. All others are invited to come forward to receive a blessing. If you are not receiving the sacrament, you may indicate this by crossing your arms over your chest in the shape of an X.

ONLINE BIBLE STUDY: A study of the scripture readings and hymns of the week will be available on our website on Friday mornings under the "Worship with Us Online" section and following the "Weekly Bible Study" button. This study is led by Pastor Mech, Pastor Berg, and Kantor, Dr. Sam Eatherton. Be sure to subscribe to our YouTube channel so you get notified of new content. Online Bible Study content will be updated and available every Friday morning.

TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH, SCHOOL, AND CHILDCARE PODCAST: You can also listen to the weekly Bible Study and the Sermon of the week on our website, on the go on your phone, on your computer in your favorite music player, or in your car -- just by searching "Trinity Lutheran Sheboygan" in your favorite podcast application. It is available on all major Podcast platforms. The Sermon for that week will be available Sunday Afternoon after the 8am Divine Service. Be sure to subscribe to the Podcast in your favorite player so you can get notified when new episodes are added.

PARENTS OF YOUNG CHILDREN: Welcome to Trinity. We are glad you are here and have brought your children to worship. We invite you to use the church bags, Bibles, and children's bulletins found at each entrance to the sanctuary. While we want children to participate in the entire Divine Service, we understand that there may be times when you must leave the service for a little while. At these times, you may use the Music Room, located next to the Narthex, or the Luther Room, located downstairs across from the restrooms. Both locations have the livestream of the service televised so you can continue to follow along. Changing tables are in the music room restroom and the restrooms downstairs. Please ask an usher if you need assistance.

BAPTISM: (10:45)

† Felicity Aletheia, daughter of Joshua & Alison (Kirchhoff) Schroeder

FLOWERS & GIFTS THIS SUNDAY TO THE GLORY OF GOD:

† In honor and celebration of the 58th wedding anniversary of Victor & Connie Knop

† In honor and celebration of the 55th wedding anniversary of Bob & Christel Miske

SPECIAL VOTERS' ASSEMBLY MEETING: There is a special Voters' Meeting on Monday, April 29th immediately following the Monday evening Divine Service (7:30 in the sanctuary) for the purpose of Calling a Kantor to Trinity. Only currently rostered voting members can vote at this meeting, but all members of Trinity may attend the meeting.

KANTOR CANDIDATE INFORMATION: Renata Peperkorn will be graduating from Concordia University Nebraska in May. She comes highly recommended by her professors and cooperating teachers. She has completed coursework to obtain a Bachelor's degree, double-majoring in Parish Music and Instrumental and Choral Music Education. Miss Peperkorn has an impressive resume full of various music performances, playing organ for many churches and services, and internships. She was the music intern for the Higher Things conference last year, where she led services and directed the youth choir. She is currently from Fort Wayne, Indiana where her parents reside. You may listen to Miss Peperkorn senior organ recital at <https://tinyurl.com/Peperkorn-Recital>

HYMN FESTIVAL AT TRINITY: All are invited to a Hymn Festival here at Trinity on Friday, May 31, at 6:30 pm (please note the time has been changed from 7:00 pm to 6:30 pm). The Hymn Festival is titled Singing the Life of Christ. Pastor Berg will provide the meditations on the hymns, and Kantor Eatherton will be leading the singing from the organ. Instruments and Choral participation will accentuate the hymnody as we sing our way through the church year. Please mark your calendars and plan to attend.

SIMPLY GIVING: Thank you to everyone who completed the annual commitment forms. If you currently use Simply Giving to give your offering electronically, please contact Chris Melcher melcher@trinitysheboygan.org or (920-458-8246) if you would like to update the amount, timing, or your account information for your offerings. If you would like to move to electronic giving, please contact Chris to set up your account.

EDUCATING A NEW GENERATION OF LUTHERANS... Issues, Etc. is a radio talk show and podcast produced by Lutheran Public Radio in Collinsville, IL and hosted by LCMS Pastor Todd Wilken. Introit

A little while, and you will see me no | longer;*
and again a little while, and you will | see me.

I will extol you, my | God and King,*
and bless your name forever and | ever.

Every day I will | bless you*
and praise your name forever and | ever.

The LORD is gracious and | merciful,*
slow to anger and abounding in | steadfast love.

All your works shall give thanks to you, | O LORD,*
and all your saints shall | bless you!

My mouth will speak the praise | of the LORD,*
and let all flesh bless his holy name forever and | ever.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*
and to the Holy | Spirit;

as it was in the be- | ginning,*
is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

A little while, and you will see me no | longer;*
and again a little while, and you will | see me.

Collect of the Day

O God, You make the minds of Your faithful to be of one will. Grant that we may love what You have commanded and desire what You promise, that among the many changes of this world our hearts may be fixed where true joys are found; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Gradual

Christ has risen | from the dead.*

[God the Father] has crowned him with glory and | honor,
He has given him dominion over the works | of his hands;*
he has put all things un- | der his feet.

Next Sunday's Readings: Acts 10:34-48; 1 John 5:1-8; John 15:9-17

Learn by Heart: Where is this written? LSB p. 326

Today in Sunday School: This week, we study "The Thankful One." Encountering ten lepers on His way to Jerusalem, Jesus has mercy on them and sends them to show themselves to the priests. As they go, the lepers are healed; but only one, a Samaritan, returns to thank Jesus.

Acts 8:26-40 ²⁶Now an angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Rise and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." This is a desert place. ²⁷And he rose and went. And there was an Ethiopian, a eunuch, a court official of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was in charge of all her treasure. He had come to Jerusalem to worship ²⁸and was returning, seated in his chariot, and he was reading the prophet Isaiah. ²⁹And the Spirit said to Philip, "Go over and join this chariot." ³⁰So Philip ran to him and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet and asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?" ³¹And he said, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him. ³²Now the passage of the Scripture that he was reading was this: "Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter and like a lamb before its shearer is silent, so he opens not his mouth. ³³In his humiliation justice was denied him. Who can describe his generation? For his life is taken away from the earth." ³⁴And the eunuch said to Philip, "About whom, I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?" ³⁵Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning with this Scripture he told him the good news about Jesus. ³⁶And as they were going along the road they came to some water, and the eunuch said, "See, here is water! What prevents me from being baptized?" ³⁸And he commanded the chariot to stop, and they both went down into the water, Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him. ³⁹And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord carried Philip away, and the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing. ⁴⁰But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he passed through he preached the gospel to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

1 John 4:1-11 ¹Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. ²By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, ³and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. ⁴Little children, you are from God and have overcome them, for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. ⁵They are from the world; therefore they speak from the world, and the world listens to them. ⁶We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error. ⁷Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. ⁸Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. ⁹In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. ¹⁰In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. ¹¹Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

John 15:1-8 ¹[Jesus said:] "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. ²Every branch of mine that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. ³Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. ⁴Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. ⁵I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. ⁶If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. ⁷If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. ⁸By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples."

Treasures from the Church: "God loves each of us as if there were only one of us." - Augustine

Summary of Readings: "God is love," and He has manifested Himself to us by sending "his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him" (1 John 4:9, 16). By the ministry of the Gospel, "he has given us of his Spirit," so that we also believe and confess "that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh." In this way, we "abide in him and he in us," and we "love one another" (1 John 4:2, 7, 13). Such divine love is exemplified in Philip's preaching of "the good news about Jesus" to the Ethiopian eunuch. And when "they came to some water," the eunuch was baptized into the very Gospel that Philip had preached (Acts 8:35-38). That Ethiopian was thereby grafted into "the true vine," Jesus Christ (John 15:1), just as we are. Already we are clean because of the Word that Christ has spoken to us and by the washing of water with His Word. We now abide in Him by faith in His forgiveness. As He abides in us, both body and soul, with His own body and His blood, He "bears much fruit" in us (John 15:3-5).

Faith and Love: "Behold, from faith thus flow forth love and joy in the Lord, and from love a joyful, willing, and free mind that serves one's neighbor willingly and takes no account of gratitude or ingratitude, of praise or blame, of gain or loss. For a man does not serve that he may put men under obligations. He does not distinguish between friends and enemies or anticipate their thankfulness or unthankfulness, but he most freely and most willingly spends himself and all that he has, whether he wastes all on the thankless or whether he gains a reward. As his Father does, distributing all things to all men richly and freely, making 'his sun rise on the evil and on the good' [Matt. 5:45], so also the son does all things and suffers all things with that freely bestowing joy which is his delight when through Christ he sees it in God, the dispenser of such great benefits. Therefore, if we recognize the great and precious things which are given us, as Paul says [Rom. 5:5], our hearts will be filled by the Holy Spirit with the love which makes us free, joyful, almighty workers and conquerors over all tribulations, servants of our neighbors, and yet lords of all. For those who do not recognize the gifts bestowed upon them through Christ, however, Christ has been born in vain; they go their way with their works and shall never come to taste or feel those things. Just as our neighbor is in need and lacks that in which we abound, so we were in need before God and lacked his mercy. Hence, as our heavenly Father has in Christ freely come to our aid, we also ought freely to help our neighbor through our body and its works, and each one should become as it were a Christ to the other that we may be Christs to one another and Christ may be the same in all, that is, that we may be truly Christians." - Martin Luther, Luther's Works, Vol. 31: Career of the Reformer I, ed. Harold J. Grimm and Helmut T. Lehmann, vol. 31 (Philadelphia: Fortress Press, 1957), 368.

Sermon: Little by little it seems our culture is moving from being centered on the family with its focus of love for one another to tribalism, where membership is based not on love, but on grievance. An episode of the iconic 90's sitcom Seinfeld has a humorous example of this as one of the characters in the show decides to make up his own secular holiday to replace Christmas. He called it Festivus. "Festivus for the rest of us." Instead of sharing gifts put under a Christmas tree and celebrating the love of God in Jesus Christ, the family gathered around an aluminum pole for an activity the character, Frank Costanza, called, "The airing of grievances." It seems, at least to me, that this humorous episode of the fictional Seinfeld has captured something that is happening more and more in real life where the focus has become not love, but grievance. As grievance culture replaces a culture of love emanating from the love of God and expressed in the family, things are not so funny anymore. Apart from God in Christ, we are left with just the oppressed and the oppressors. The antidote for this comes not from us, but from God. "God is love," and He has manifested Himself to us by sending "his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him." As we "abide in him and he in us" we become instruments not of grievance, but of love.

Choral Psalm 25: 8 a.m. Lord, I Lift My Soul to You

Lord, I lift my soul to You; My trust is ever in Your Word.

O make me know all Your ways.

Lord, I claim Your boundless love; Your deeds are known from days of old.
You guide the humble in the paths of peace; O Lord, Your name is Truth and Light.

Those who revere the Lord live in joy. Peace shall be upon their way.
The Lord will be their constant hope; The Lord is ever their guide and stay.

Lord, I lift my soul to You, My trust is ever in Your Word.

O make me know all Your ways.

Lord, I lift my soul to You; I praise You now, forevermore.

Text: Psalm 25, paraphrase by H. Hopson

Setting: G.F. Handel; arr. H. Hopson

Offering: 8 a.m. O World, Look Up and See the Light

O world, look up and see the Light Who shines for all to see
And fills each heart with pure delight That longs to be set free.

O nations, gather near your King And bow in awe and praise.
The dazzling gifts you came to bring Proclaim His glorious ways.

O heavens, bow before the Star That came to earth in love
For all below, both near and far, To bring them up above.

O night, your time is at an end; The far horizon glows
With hope as prayers and songs ascend And yearning overflows.

Text: © 2024 Lisa M. Clark, administered by Concordia Publishing House. Used by permission.

Offering: 10:45 a.m. The Lord is My Shepherd

The Lord is my shepherd; therefore can I lack nothing.

He shall feed me in a green pasture,

and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.

He shall convert my soul and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness, for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil;

For thou art with me: Thy rod and Thy staff comfort me.

Thou shalt prepare a table for me against them that trouble me:

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Text: Psalm 23, Book of Common Prayer

Setting: John Rutter

Communion: 8 a.m. Oh, I Will Praise the Lord

Oh, I will praise the Lord at all times;

God's praise shall be upon my lips continually.

Ich will den Herrn loben alle Zeit;

Sein Lob soll immerdar in meinem Munde sein.

Text: Psalm 34:1

Music: G.P. Telemann, 1681-1767, ed. M. Burkhardt

The Lord Bless You and Keep You

The Lord bless you and keep you;
The Lord make His face to shine upon you,
and be gracious unto you.
The Lord lift up the light of His countenance upon you and give you peace. Amen.

Text: Numbers 6:24
Setting: John Rutter

Communion: 10:45 a.m. Today Arose Christ From the Grave

Where, then, is the King of Glory, born of Mary, Virgin mother, Suffered pain and died, though holy? Gone is His body and empty His tomb.

Today arose Christ from the grave, Alleluia! Alleluia!
The Comforter has risn' to save. Alleluia! Alleluia!

Since He is risen from the grave, Alleluia! Alleluia!
A joyous Easter ye now have. Alleluia! Alleluia!

So let us all rejoice and sing, Alleluia! Alleluia!
For risen is our Lord and King, Alleluia!

TRINITY EASTER CONCERT: All are invited to attend the Easter Concert on Wednesday, May 1 at 7 p.m. at Holy Name Catholic Church here in Sheboygan (807 Superior). Trinity's Adult Choir and 3-8th Grade Children's Choirs will be joining with the Lutheran High Konzertchor to sing the Mass in C Sharp Minor by Louis Vierne. This large work consists of five parts of the Divine Service that we sing most every Sunday: Kyrie, Gloria, Sanctus, Benedictus, and Agnus Dei. The concert is free and open to the public. A punch and cookie reception will follow. Thanks to all who donated to the concert.

TELL THE GOOD NEWS! "When you meet other people, . . . see them as people loved by Christ. Remember that the Holy Spirit desires to gather them into the Lord's kingdom through the Gospel." Remember, too, "that the power of the Gospel does not stem from the ability of the person proclaiming it," "nor does it stem from the worthiness of the people hearing it." The power is that of the Holy Spirit working through the Gospel. (Quotations from To All Eternity - The Essential Teachings of Christianity, Concordia Publishing House, 2005, p.56) The Rev. Robert Zick, Director of Evangelism

SUPPORT A LOCAL BUSINESS AND TRINITY FOR MOTHER'S DAY THIS YEAR

A local bakery in Sheboygan, Cupcake Sugar, just advertised a fun, unique school fundraiser for Mother's Day. Families can order a dozen delicious, frosted sugar cookies for $15 dollars (check out the image to see how cute they are!), and the bakery will donate $5 of those dollars back to Trinity. Order forms are available in the church office, and will be due (along with payment via check or cash) to the office on May 1st. If you or your friends and family are looking for a delicious baked treat for Mother's Day (without baking yourself!), please place an order! It's a win-win for your family and for Trinity! Checks for orders can be made out to Trinity.

Cookies will be delivered to Trinity on Friday, May 10th, and will be available for families to pick up at the end of the school day. What a simple way to have awesome treats for Mother's Day!
